THE DEVARAJA BAHADUR CHARITY FUND—LITERARY SECTION.

Notification dated 14th July 1949.

No. D6—49-50. Applications in the prescribed form in Kannada are invited from authors who desire to submit their books and manuscripts for patronage from the Devaraja Bahadur Charity Fund—Literary Section. Authors should submit their works along with their applications so as to reach this office on or before the 31st December 1949.

2. A. Kannada.—The works submitted for patronage may be original works in Kannada, translations from other language into Kannada or critical editions of standard Kannada works, or collections of folk songs and folk tales edited with critical introduction, annotations, etc. In the case of prose works, pamphlets will not be considered.

B. Sanskrit.—In the case of Sanskrit, they may be critical editions of Sanskrit works or original works on subjects of modern interest.

N.B.—The idea is to create a Modern Literature in easy Sanskrit prose dealing with the many fields of Sanskrit learning in the spirit of research and freedom of discussion and bringing to bear upon the problems of the day, the ancient wisdom of India.

The order of preference in making the award will be as follows:—

(i) Original works.

(ii) Translation.

(iii) Critical editions of standard works.

The works may be either manuscripts or printed books. In the case of the latter, the date of publication should not be earlier than the 1st January 1949.

The applications should be accompanied by a Memorandum stating how far the work is original, or in the case of a translation, the original source and indicating the special claims of the work for the prize.

The manuscripts should be written legibly and only on one side of the paper well bound. Manuscripts once considered will not be accepted a second time.

3. The competition is open to all in the case of Kannada works, but shall be confined to authors or editors in the Mysore State in the case of Sanskrit works.

4. The awards shall be made on the judgment of a Committee appointed by the Director of Public Instruction.

5. There will be not less than two prizes, their value ranging from Rs. 100 to Rs. 500. But the Director of Public Instruction may, according to special circumstances of each year, withdraw or modify the value of the prizes in the absence of works coming up to the mark.

6. The award may be in the shape of an absolute grant to the author in the case of a printed book and in the case of manuscripts, contribution towards the printing of the work, subject to the author guaranteeing its publication within a year.

7. In every case the decision of the Director of Public Instruction shall be final.

8. Copies of books submitted in response to this advertisement will not be returned, but manuscripts so submitted will be returned to the applicants only after June 1950.
